

MARION'S NEW HOMES QUOTA
RAISED TO 500priorities Now Virtually Sure for That Many Dwelling Units.

The National Housing Agency, set up to coordinate the various federal organizations having any connection with the home construction industry, today took possession of Marion's housing shortage, and recommended that Marion be given priorities assistance for a total of 500 privately built homes. The present quota of 100 is nearly exhausted.

This word came today from D. E. Mackelmann, located in the Cleveland regional office of the NHA. He said the Cleveland office had recommended the approval of more privately built homes for Marion, and that on July 30 John B. Blandford Jr., NHA administrator in Washington, had given his approval and sent the recommendation on to the war production board.

The WPA is expected to give its approval in the next few days, Mackelmann said. This development would give private builders in Marion the assurance of priorities assistance in getting materials to build houses for war workers.

Other Problems

With the number of housing projects now scheduled rising toward the 100 mark, builders undoubtedly will make a sizeable dent in the new quota, inquiry this morning among men connected with the building industry indicated. However, all were of the opinion that the prospects of private builders using up the entire quota in the near future are dim.

One lumber dealer said that even with priorities assistance dealers are having difficulty getting lumber now, in view of the nationwide freezing of lumber. They said the freezing order has been lifted only in two Ohio counties to date, and that Marion is one of the cities most in need of the stocks that dealers already have on hand. Thus, he said, a lumber shortage probably would develop before any large-scale housing program could be completed here unless steps were taken to free Marion from the lumber freezing order.

Some Lumber Available

However, there is already enough lumber on hand for some home construction work. If the new quota of 500 houses is approved, any one who wants to build will be assured the assistance of the government in getting priorities. Also, the federal housing authority has indicated it is ready to approve financing arrangements for all projects that can meet FHA requirements. The new quota will mean that any one who wants to build a house for rent or sale to a war worker may do so, and undoubtedly a number of houses will be constructed in view of today's developments, one building supply man predicted.

Today's announcement, from Cleveland also touched on the possibility of government-financed housing in Marion to provide homes for war workers. In answer to a question asked by The Star, Mr. Mackelmann said: "As to the question of publicly financed housing, I am sorry that I can not give you any definite statement at this time. As you may know, a bill is now pending in congress under which an additional $600,000,000 is to be made available for publicly financed housing. While the house has not yet taken action, it has been favorably reported upon by the committee on public building and grounds. In the meantime, however, we are preparing further recommendations for submission to our Washington office."

Army Tests New
Rubber Life Raft
at Indian Lake

By The Associated Press
DAYTON, O., Aug. 4.—Army air corps officers expressed satisfaction today over the first public demonstration of a new one-man life-raft designed for air-planes piloted and crew members forced down on water.

Developed at Wright Field, the raft made its debut yesterday at Indian Lake, 60 miles north, with Paratrooper David Allen as master of ceremonies.

The 24-year-old first lieutenant from Salt Lake City parachuted from a twin-motored plane wearing the deflated raft like a cushion in a packet 18x12x4 inches. It was his first leap into water and he described it thus:

"I jumped from about 600 feet and everything was all right. The water was shallow so I didn't need my 'Mae West' life preserver. I unbuckled my chute and ripped open the raft and inflated it. Everything worked good."

The 12-pound raft is inflated by pulling a cord which releases gas from a large cylinder. In 10 seconds the folded rubber raft blossoms into a six-foot orange boat resembling a huge oval doughnut but with a floor in the center.

RUSSIANS CUT NAZI LINES
IN BATTLE OF DON RIVERMarion School Board
Asks for 2-Mill LevyDecides To Seek Additional $60,000 Annually for 3 Years:
Cites Increased Expenses.

An additional two-mill levy for current expenses of the Marion city schools will be sought by the Marion board of education at the November election as a result of action taken at a monthly board session yesterday afternoon in the administration building.

The levy, to run for three years, 1942-43 and 44, would raise an estimated $60,000 yearly for general operating costs and would be an addition to the three-mill levy voted two years ago.

The board also temporarily approved of the 1943 budget calling for $169,319.35 for the general fund and $94,370.14 for bond retirement, appointed one man to the principalship, employed 15 teachers, including four married women, and two custodians; accepted the resignations of six teachers and two custodians; instructed Clerk J. D. Torrance through the state department of education to seek an opinion from the authority general concerning the authority of the Marion Federation of Teachers, Local No. 715; as the bargaining agent for classroom teachers; set, Thursday, Aug. 20, as date for public hearing on the budget and voted transfer of territory from the Marion rural to the Marion city school district.

Levy Vote Unanimous

The resolution to seek the two mill levy was passed unanimously by the board following a discussion in which all members participated.

Following are three sections of the resolution:

Section I. That the amount of taxes that may be raised by a levy of taxes at the maximum rate authorized by Section 5625-2 of the General Code of Ohio, within said school district, will be insufficient to provide adequate funds for the necessary requirements of said school district, and that it is necessary for the purpose of providing additional funds for the current expenses of said school district, that taxes be levied on the taxable property in said school district in excess of the maximum rate authorized by Section 5625-2 of the General Code of Ohio.

Section II. That it is necessary to levy taxes for the years 1942, 1943 and 1944 at the rate for each year of two mills on each dollar of the tax valuation of the taxable property within said school district in excess of the rate authorized by Section 5625-2 of the General Code of Ohio.

Section III. That the question of approving such additional tax levy shall be submitted to the electors of said school district at the general election to be held on the date of Nov. 3, 1942.

The proposed rate would amount to 20 cents annually for each $100 of valuation for the three-year period.

The question of whether the budget commission would have any say in distributing the added levy arose and Supt. E. E. Holt informed the board that money from the levy could not be spent for any other purpose than for school use.

The superintendent recalled that the question of free-millage had come up in meetings with teachers to discuss salaries and that according to a recent opinion of the supreme court to the East Liverpool school district it is not the intention of the law to make it mandatory for a budget commission to allocate to any one subdivision any specific sum.

"The point of the 28 hundredths of a mill which the Marion board has not taken and which has been mentioned many times, is a dead issue, according to that ruling," he said.

Up to the Public

Speaking of seeking the levy, the superintendent said: "If we don't make this effort and find a year from now that we have to take in our belts, we may be properly questioned about our failure to anticipate our needs. If it is disproved we have done what we could do about the situation. The initiative lies with the board to seek the public's will."

The superintendent said that in reply to several queries as to why the board did not issue bonds, he had told several business men that issuing bonds would only temporarily meet the situation, since the bonds would have to be paid off at a future date.

Clerk Torrance, in submitting the question of a levy said that "under present conditions we do not have the amount of money to take care of any adjustments as far as physical conditions of buildings and bringing expenditures for salaries to the point we

Marion Bids For Lima Coach, but Canton Signs Him

Steps to replace W. O. Williams, Harding High school football coach who resigned last week, were taken yesterday afternoon by the board of education but the deal fell through this morning when Supt. E. E. Holt was notified by the candidate that he had accepted a contract with the Canton board of education.

The candidate was Richard Morgan Jones, Lima High school football coach, who was recommended by Mr. Williams when he presented his resignation to accept a position with the University school in Columbus.

In contacting Mr. Jones, Mr. Holt learned that the Canton board of education also was seeking to place him under contract.

Mr. Holt told the board yesterday that over the week-end he talked with Mr. Jones in Marion and later by telephone with Jesse Mason, Canton superintendent who formerly headed the Marion schools. In the telephone conversation Mr. Mason said he was prepared to pay Mr. Jones $2,500 a year, which is above the Marion salary schedule.

Mr. Holt told the board yesterday, he felt that the position offered in Marion was one which Mr. Jones desired most, unless salary became too important a factor. The board agreed to issue Mr. Jones a contract at $2,350 a year.

When the telegram came this morning from Mr. Jones, stating that he had accepted the Canton position, Mr. Holt was preparing to send the contract by special delivery to Iowa City, Ia., where Mr. Jones is attending the pre-light naval training school which the navy opened to coaches for a two-week period "to bring the high school and college training program into line with the stern necessity of the emergency."

Mr. Holt said he has a number of applicants for the post and will begin at once to secure another candidate for the board's consideration.

RENT CONTROL
BOARD HEARS
19 COMPLAINTSAllows 12 Increases; Decisions
To Serve as Precedents in Various Neighborhoods.

Marion's rent control board, getting into its first group of complaints that with few exceptions had no connection with pending court cases, heard 19 complaints last night in the second hearing since it was organized 20 day ago.

It granted rent increases in 12 cases, but in most cases the boosts were not as much as landlords asked.

It denied rent increases in five others.

In two cases it refused to rule, contending the matters involved were for courts to settle.

The board also took a definite step toward standardizing its recommendations for certain parts of the city, fixing rentals in the east part of the city in several cases around the $35 mark and setting some in the south part of Marion in the $27.50 to $32.50 range.

The board indicated it would consider each case on its own merits, and take into consideration any unusual circumstance that properly should be considered, but that it would make an effort to keep its recommendations fairly consistent for various neighborhoods provided the houses involved were comparable.

Cases Handled Quickly

Last night's hearing began at 7:30 and progressed rapidly. By 10 o'clock the last case had been heard. Several times the board interrupted involved persons to keep landlord-renter arguments from getting into matters that the board did not feel had any bearing on the rent question, and in some instances gave its decision and called for the next case while the involved parties were still talking.

For the most part, landlords and renters confined their comments to answering questions raised by the board or attorneys, but occasionally they would get into matters such as charges that renters were slow paying their rent, that renters' children were tearing up their property, or that the landlord let garbage build up in other parts of houses. Evictions or the threat of evictions popped up occasionally along with a variety of grievances, but the board members constantly steered the discussion back to factors having a bearing on what would be a fair rent for the property involved.

Plenty of Variety

There was even a little table pounding, and in the parade of some 45 persons who appeared before the board there was every type of mannerism. Some spoke so low that even the board members a few feet away could scarcely hear. Others talked loud enough for everyone in the common pleas courtroom.

One renter offered a snappy comeback about the lack of hot water when his landlord remarked about the services being furnished at an apartment, but when the renter glared around at the board members to see how the board reacted to his remark, he found all the members talking among themselves instead of listening to him, and he dropped back into his chair and remained silent. At times there were sharp, dozen conversations going on at once around the hearing table, but over all landlords and renters got over an unusually quick manner among themselves instead of listening, and several times came up with decisions which Common Pleas

4 MORE SHIPS

Declares Menace to U. S.
To Grow Worse.

By The Associated Press

Four more recent ship sinkings were announced by the navy yesterday amid conflicting declarations from two quarters on the continued success of axis submarines in the western Atlantic.

As The Associated Press tabulation of announced wartime merchant losses for the area rose to 412, Simon Lake, pioneer submarine builder, asserted in Washington in advocating a fleet of undersea freighters. "We have not yet seen the full fury of the (enemy) submarines such as will probably descend upon us in the days to come," he testified before a senate committee.

One Area Relieved

At Balboa, C. Z., meanwhile, Rear Admiral Clifford Evans Van Hook reported that during July the Caribbean—where in a 12-day period raiding U-boats picked off 13 victims the month before—had been particularly free of effective enemy attacks.

Admiral Van Hook told newsmen that the increasing freedom from submarine attacks in the Caribbean might be due to the recent extension of the convoy system in those waters and might also be a result of "the urgent Committee.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The senate subcommittee on military affairs sought the advice of war department and production authorities today on a proposal to build giant planes to convey troops and supplies to the war zone.

Donald M. Nelson, director of the war production board, promising to help Henry J. Kaiser, west coast shipbuilder, in the plan to make the planes in the nation's shipyards, the subcommittee called two of Nelson's subordinates for questioning on technical problems in executive session. They were Grover Loening, WPA aeronautics adviser, and Theodore Wright, assistant chief of the board's aircraft section. Robert B. Patterson, undersecretary of war, was a third witness.

The committee yesterday heard Simon Lake, 75-year-old submarine inventor, propose the construction of 7,500 ton cargo-carrying submarines to supplement aerial freighters.

Lake told the senators he had perfected a silencing device that would enable submarines to elude surface ships equipped with sound detectors.

RED SUCCESS

QUICK ATTACKGermans, However, Continue

Caucasus Area.

By The Associated Press

Soviet dispatches declared today that Marshal Semen Timoshenko's armies, sweeping around the German flanks, had cut off Nazi forces in the "Battle of the Bend" 80 miles northwest of Stalingrad, but the invaders continued to surge forward on the lower Don river and in the Caucasus.

A bulletin from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters asserted that German mechanized columns had rolled up to the Kuban river deep in the Caucasus at several points and had captured the town of Voroshilovsk, 180 miles southeast of Rostov.

It true, this would mean that the Germans had already advanced nearly one-third the distance to the great Caucasus oil fields and far beyond the sectors noted in Soviet communiques.

The Kuban river, which crosses the Rostov-Batou rail line, empties into the Black sea just below the Kerch peninsula.

A German communiqué said Voroshilovsk, described as an important industrial sector, fell to Nazi shock troops after violent house-to-house fighting.

A British radio broadcast reported that the Russians had blown up a dam and flooded the Manych river valley to stem the advance of German armored units north of Salak, 100 miles southeast of Rostov.

There was still no indication that the Soviet trans-Caucasian army had gone into action, and it seemed likely that the force was being held in reserve to make a stand in the rugged mountains which guard the approach to the rich Baku-Batou oil fields from the north.

It Duce Issues Warning

Meanwhile, it was disclosed that Premier Mussolini, speaking in an address to the Italian parliament, had issued a warning against "idle dreams" about a second front.

"The law in Italy will be applied unrelentingly against those who nourish idle dreams on this or that side of the frontier," he was quoted as saying, after conferring with officers on measures to keep order in Italy and counteract Yugoslavians.

"There will not be a second front here any more than elsewhere in the world. The axis and the tri-partite power have in their hands the means for victory."

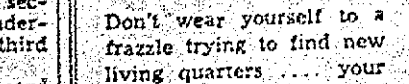

In the Soviet campaign, a mid-day bulletin from Red army headquarters acknowledged that the Russians had retreated in the Salak region, 100 miles south of Rostov, after thousands of wild-riding Cossacks had broken up a series of Nazi assaults.

Shouting "no shagu nazad" (not one step backward), the Don and Kuban Cossacks were credited with beating off two regiments of tank-led German infantry but subsequently were forced to withdraw.

Latest Soviet dispatches reported fighting in only two Caucasus zones — at Salak and at Kuschchevka, 50 miles south of Rostov.

A Red army communiqué said the Germans "several times attempted unsuccessfully to force crossings over a river in the Kuschchevka sector, 138 miles north of the Malokopel fields in the foothills of the Caucasus mountains."

CONGRESSMEN IN HOT RACES

Ohioans Commute Between Capital and House in Legislative Lull.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Ohioans in congress have put themselves on a commuting basis between their homes and the capital during the legislative lull. The primary is Aug. 11 and their opponents are out. Like most other members of the house, Buckeye representatives consider it important to be seen and heard in their districts.

The state's senators, Republicans Robert A. Taft and Harold H. Burton, are making trips home and back for other reasons, among them to get away from Washington's much-talked-about summer heat. Neither is up for reelection this year.

All the house members decided months ago to run for re-election, but one man has changed his mind. He is Robert Secrest, Caldwell Democrat, who chose to forego his political career for the duration. He is resigning his house seat to take a commission in the navy.

Jenkins Needs a Rest

Representative Thomas A. Jenkins of Ironton, dean of Ohio house Republicans, welcomes a chance to go home for a much-needed rest. He is a member of the ways and means committee which worked for months on the new tax bill already passed by the house and now being revised by a senate committee.

At least two members didn't look forward to complete relaxation during the informal recess. Republican George Bender and Democrat Stephen Young, both of Cleveland, are engaged in a statewide contest for the state's one at-large seat. There are two such seats now but the state lost one because of a shift in population in the 1930 census.

Among the district representatives seeking re-election is the state's first woman member of congress, Mrs. Frances Bolton, Cleveland Republican. She is filling the place formerly held by her late husband, Chester Bolton. Republicans Charles Elston and William E. Hess of Cincinnati, Robert F. Jones of Lima, Cliff Cleveland of Bryan, Clarence J. Brown of Blanchester, Frederick C. Smith of Marion, John M. Vorys of Columbus, D. Baumhart Jr. of Vermilion, J. Harry McGregor of West Lafayette, and Democrats Greg Holbrook of Hamilton, Jacob E. Davis of Waverly, John F. Hunter of Toledo, Harold K. Claypool of Chillicothe, Don W. Harter of Akron, William R. Thom of Canton, Lawrence E. Imhoff of St. Clairsville, Michael J. Kilwan of Youngstown, Martin L. Sweeney of Cleveland and Robert Croser of Cleveland.

To Lose on Committee

Ohio stands to lose a member on several committees as a result of Secrest's resignation. He is chairman of the library committee and a member of committees on flood control, invalid pensions, mines, and roads.

A number of important committee seats are held by those seeking re-election.

Mrs. Bolton, Davis and Vorys are members of the foreign affairs committee. Elston and Harter are on the military affairs committee. Hess and Imhoff on the naval affairs committee. Jones, appropriations, revenue, agriculture, Thom, judiciary, and Smith, banking and currency. Jenkins is Ohio's only representative on the ways and means committee.

Two Lost Lives

Two men were killed and 40 saved in the torpedoing of the British ship in the South Atlantic 300 miles from shore May 28. The ship riddled the lifeboats with machine gun fire as the seamen tried to lower them.

Thirteen of 24 crewmen aboard the Norwegian perished when their craft was torpedoed in the Gulf of Mexico July 19.

The American tug was sunk more than two weeks ago off the east coast, presumably by a mine, with two men missing and 15, including a new girl, rescued.

The trawler's casualty list included five killed and seven wounded in the North Atlantic attack in which five other crewmen escaped unscathed as a sub shelled their craft.

Delaware Pastor Gets Citizenship Papers

DELAWARE, O., Aug. 4.—An unusual event occurred here Sunday in St. Paul's Methodist church when the congregation presented the pastor, Rev. Sidney C. G. Everson, with an American flag in recognition of his having attained American citizenship.

Rev. Everson, who came to Delaware in June by assignment at the annual Northeast Ohio Methodist conference, received his final citizenship papers last week in Athens. A native of England, he came to this country 15 years ago with his parents. He attended Michigan State college, drew theological seminary and the Harvard University theological school.

Compromise Gives Roomer Clothes and Alarm Clock

A landlord Monday took possession of the personal property of a former tenant who had moved out, but by a compromise the roomer finally was given enough clothing to appear decently dressed and an alarm clock to wake him in the morning.

According to the landlord's story, the tenant, a woman, had moved out of her room in the Belmont Garden district north of Marion moved out and took with her a large trunk and a box. The landlord also took possession of the property of the tenant, including a trunk and a box, and refused to return them.

Officials from the sheriff's office were called and helped effect the compromise. Whether the roomer will recover the rest of his property apparently will be a matter for a court to decide.

SEVEN RELEASED FROM JUVENILE DETENTION HOME

Father of Five Arranges for Children's Care; Mother on Visit.

Two Marion girl delinquents and five children whose mother left them to visit an army camp have been released from the county detention home, Juvenile Judge Gast said this morning.

The two delinquents, 14 and 15 years of age, who have been held since July 30, were runaways. Both were released to their mothers on probation. The 14-year-old girl was given a suspended indeterminate sentence to the Girls' Industrial school at Delaware.

The father of five small children at Morral made arrangements for them to be taken from the detention home to the home of an aunt. Several weeks ago their mother left to visit a son-in-law in a South Carolina army camp. Last week the judge sent her a telegram at Fayetteville, S. C., advising her that it would be wise to return to Marion at once and assume responsibility for her children.

Cut Around Flanks

In the battle of the Don river bend, Soviet dispatches said German troops "in superior numbers" broke through Red army lines and attempted to cross the river at Gletskeya, 80 miles above Stalingrad, but Russian forces cut swiftly around the Nazi flanks and severed their communications.

Front-line reports to Izvestia, Soviet government newspaper, said the Russians now were attempting to wipe out the advanced Nazi forces before they could reestablish contact.

Izvestia said the Germans were trying to fly ammunition and fuel to the trapped Nazis, but declared the Red air force was fighting off the supply planes.

A Soviet communiqué reported that Marshal Timoshenko's stiffening legions also threw back repeated assaults by tank-led Italian infantry in the Kletskaya sector and killed 2,000 axis troops.

On the lower Don, the Russians conceded that German forces were continuing to pour across the river in the Timskaya sector, 120 miles upstream from Rostov, but declared that here and elsewhere the Nazis were paying a bloody toll.

On the Egyptian front, British imperial headquarters reported that activity in the El Alamein theater, 80 miles west of Alexandria, had dwindled to patrol sorties and intermittent aerial clashes.

In the western air war, Nazi daylight raiders bombed two English towns today after a night-long hull on both sides.

Toledo Student Ends Life at Carnegie Tech

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 4.—Investigators said today they were unable to determine a motive in the death of John R. Claypool, 22, of Toledo, O., high-ranking engineering student at the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Deputy Coroner Anthony Sappo reported that Claypool killed himself yesterday in his campus room. The student severed an artery in his left arm with a razor, then hanged himself with a necktie on a dresser drawer knob, Sappo said.

Claypool seemed very nervous about "something" Sunday, said Paul Miller of Warren, O., a fellow student.

12 BELIEVED LOST AS BOAT CAPSIZES

STANHOISH, Mich., Aug. 4.—Coast guardsmen and sheriff's officers conducted a virtually hopeless hunt today by land, sea and air for 12 persons missing since Sunday when a cruiser carrying a fishing party foundered in Saginaw bay.

The only known survivor, Mrs. Louis Repke, 23, of Bay City, who swam an estimated seven miles to safety, was recovering meanwhile from a horrifying experience to give the first account of the apparent tragedy.

Mrs. Repke told of having set out with her husband and a second woman in an attempt to swim to shore after the 30-foot craft, a converted tug, presumably struck a rock in mid-bay.

From about 3 p. m. until darkness, the three kept together. Then they became separated. After what she believed to have been hours, Mrs. Repke attained shore and struggled to a unoccupied hunting cabin, there to fall into an exhausted sleep.

At noon yesterday she awakened and walked three miles to a farm house.

Army Engineers' Office Will Be Transferred

CINCINNATI, Aug. 4.—Col. Charles L. Hall, announced that the division office of the U. S. army engineers would be transferred from Cincinnati, its home for nine years, to Columbus for closer coordination with the Fifth service command, located at Fort Hayes.

The division office created here in 1933, is supervising perhaps a billion dollars' worth of construction.

The transfer will leave Cincinnati with the district engineer's office, headed by Col. B. P. Vandervort.

The move, expected to take place in a month or six weeks, involves some 450 military and civilian employees.

PRESIDENT REVIEWS TRIAL OF SABOTEURS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—President Roosevelt gave over virtually the entire day today to what an aid termed a "very careful review" of the findings and sentence of the military commission which tried eight Nazis on charges of entering the United States for sabotage activities.

There was no indication that Mr. Roosevelt's decision on the recommendations of the commission would come today, inasmuch as he had a tall stack of documents to go through.

To provide ample time for this, he scheduled only a late afternoon press conference, a late meeting with Elmer Davis, director of the office of war information, and an engagement earlier to bestow a congressional medal of honor on Lieutenant John C. Bulkeley, a Toledo boat expert who took General Douglas MacArthur and high Filipino officials to Australia.

The commission held a two-minute formal session yesterday then adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

There was immediate speculation this meant the commission would meet to sign death warrants for at least seven of the accused at the President's approval of the findings.

A conclusion that some, if not all, of the Nazis had been convicted, was the commission's statement "the commission announced that the findings and sentence will not be announced by it." The use of the word "sentence" definitely indicated there had been convictions.

COMBINED FUND DRIVE PLANNED

Further Details of Campaign Outlined at Community Foundation Meeting.

Preliminary plans for the United War Chest campaign to finance the work of the Marion Community Foundation agencies, the USO, Navy Relief and to meet other wartime appeals in Marion city and county were discussed at the monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the Community Foundation last night at the Y. J. O'Leary presided.

Nearly all agencies of the foundation have placed their budgets in the hands of the board committee. The amount to be sought in the drive will be announced in the near future.

Countywide Drive

Because the campaign this year includes the USO, Navy, British, Greek and other relief organizations functioning for the duration of the war and because it was thought best by those concerned to hold one drive to raise funds for all appeals, the campaign will be countywide in scope. Residents of the county will be asked to contribute to the USO and other national appeals only, the board pointed out. There will be two sets of subscription cards, one for the city, which will provide for contributions to both the Community Foundation and wartime agencies, and one for residents outside the city for contributions to wartime relief agencies only.

The Marion Community Foundation, Inc., has taken over the work of raising the money for the community agencies and the war relief appeals and early this year decided to combine the appeals in one big drive. This, it was pointed out, will relieve contributors from being asked to respond to many appeals during the year and also will conserve the time of the workers serving on the various teams. Agencies appealing for aid from the campaign will submit their requests to a committee of members of the foundation before being considered for financial help. Persons receiving requests for help from agencies are asked to check with the foundation before making their contributions.

USO Quota $13,000

Marion county's quota for the USO is $13,000. Plans for including this amount in the annual drive were made early this summer when the USO launched its drives throughout the nation.

Robert Mason is chairman of the publicity committee. He will announce his committee and plans at an early date, it was reported. Serving as a committee for the drive are Paul Bachman, Kenneth Fields and R. A. Garvin.

TONY MARTIN TESTIFIES IN NAVAL HEARING

Lt. Commander Also Accused of Falsehood.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—When naval intelligence officers began to pry into the circumstances under which Lieut. Cmdr. Maurice N. Aroff acquired Tony Martin's $950 automobile, Aroff produced a story of a payment made and promised, Martin told a navy court martial.

On this statement, part of the volume radio and motion picture singer's day-long testimony, the navy leaned today for support of its charge that Aroff was guilty of falsehood as well as scandalous behavior in his conduct of the San Francisco district office of officer procurement.

The prosecution contends that, in violation of navy code, Aroff accepted the automobile as a gift in return for facilitating Martin's naval reserve at a time when the entertainer was but a step from army draft and then told questions he had paid for the machine.

Martin corroborated both allegations.

Coming Week-End To Bring Crisis in India Affairs

By DE WITT MACKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst

As things stand the coming week-end will bring a crisis in India affairs. The world situation is such that the present instance may easily develop into one of the major crises of the world war.

Pandit Nehru, who next to Mahatma Gandhi is the most powerful nationalist leader in India, declared today that the projected movement could be realized by the All-India Congress which meets in Calcutta Friday, and that the campaign probably would start in a fortnight. The Pandit says it will be "short, swift and effective."

The Anglo-Indian imbroglio represents one of the great dangers faced by the United Nations. The beginning of this "non-violent" revolution will be a gift from the gods to the Japanese, who may be expected to take quick advantage of the situation to stage an invasion if things look favorable.

Indeed, Mahatma Gandhi has warned the British that unless they grant independence, a Japanese invasion will be welcomed by discontented elements. That probably is an accurate estimate.

An important and intensely interesting development in connection with this fight which involves the fate of nearly 400,000,000 people is Gandhi's appeal to the Indian princes to share their powers with their people and not remain tied to the "imperial chariot wheel."

This bears the earmarks of being a shrewd effort on the part of the little mahatma to institute a war of nerves among these potentates.

Out of this situation I believe we see the beginning of a great change in the status of these 400 million. The beleaguered days which for centuries have dazzled the world are drawing to a close.

LABOR GROUPS NEAR NEW PEACE EFFORT

CIO and AFL Leaders To Be in Chicago.

By THE Associated Press

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—The nation's two great labor groups, the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations, were on the brink of a new peace movement here today.

Friendly overtures have been made by two influential leaders of the CIO, President Philip Murray and R. J. Thomas, head of the United Automobile Workers.

The next step, apparently, was up to William Green, president of the AFL, who was Chicago-bound to open a 10 day session of the federation's executive council.

Thomas already was here, attending a convention of CIO Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers, and Murray was expected early in the day.

Thus the stage was set for a renewal of the peace negotiations begun in 1937 and 1938, but broken off each time when the organizations found themselves still too far apart to agree.

Possibilities of a reconciliation were revived yesterday when it was disclosed that Murray had written Green, informing him that a CIO peace committee of three had been appointed. Murray suggested that the AFL leader appoint a similar group to discuss "possible establishment of organic unity between our organizations."

PROBST THANKS AIDS IN RATIONING WORK

Issues Statement as New System Goes Into Effect.

A statement of appreciation was made today by John P. Probst, 579 N. Marion avenue, who served as Marion county rationing coordinator for the rationing program inception in mid-January until last Saturday when the Marion county rationing board began to function under the office of price administration in Columbus.

Mr. Probst's statement follows: "A word of appreciation from the Marion County Rationing Coordinator to those who made it possible to carry out this rationing program when the government itself did not know what they wanted done, now they wanted to do it, and with no funds to carry it out."

"The eight districts located in Marion County, Prospect, Calcedonia, Waldo, Morral, Green Camp and Agosta and all those who assisted in these districts and in Marion to carry on this federal rationing program.

"Volunteering their services were the King's Daughters, Girl Scouts, Marion city schools, Marion county schools, the Marion Credit Rating bureau, the Chamber of Commerce, the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., the Probate court, the Marion Business college, the Marion Reserve Power Co., the Marion Water Co., The Marion Star, the Marion Broadcasting Co., and the Probst Supply Co."

"Without the assistance of the above it would have been impossible to carry out this federal rationing program as there were absolutely no funds available to carry on this work.

"I am grateful to all who assisted in any way. John P. Probst, Marion County Coordinator."

Mr. Probst set up the rationing program in the city and county and succeeded in establishing the present office at 193 East Center street, equipping it with borrowed furniture.

Since the government has taken over the program, federal funds will be used to pay the new executive secretary, C. C. Holliday of LaRue and four clerks, and to furnish and equip the office.

JAPS BOLSTER PACIFIC FORCE

Reinforcements Move to New Guinea Area: Allied Plans Take Toll.

By THE Associated Press

Japanese sea-borne reinforcements were reported moving to the coast of New Guinea today on civilian defense ships, bolstering a land threat to United Nations outposts at Port Moresby, while elsewhere in the Pacific theater allies hammered the enemy in the sectors.

Advices to Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters in Australia said enemy ships were en route to the Papuan peninsula, presumably to strengthen Japanese forces which landed Aug. 22 in the Gora-Bura area, on the 120-mile peninsula of Port Moresby.

Allied headquarters said situation was still unchanged. Kokoda, halfway across the peninsula, the farthest point of the Japanese advance toward Port Moresby. United Nations planes started yesterday's operations in the sector yesterday starting numerous fires.

Other allied planes rained on Lau-Salamaua area, 150 mi. north of Buna, and hit a Japanese cargo ship which was beached in flames.

On the China war front, Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's new quarters announced that U. S. army air divers dropped a 35 pound bomb squarely on Japanese headquarters at Linchuan. Kiangsi province, and machine guns won two Japanese river war ports.

American fliers also rained quarter-ton bombs on Japanese barracks and troop positions in Linchuan.

Simultaneously, a Chinese air spokesman reported, Chinese troops encircled Linchuan, a reached the city's west and south gates.

A Chinese government spokesman, discussing the change in China war since the U. S. force swung into action a month ago, declared: "Before the American air force appeared, the Japanese could great damage to us even with small air force. Now the situation is changing."

Headache for Japs

"Japan is getting a headache trying to solve the hitherto no-existent problem of protecting its airfields and strongholds, which are widely scattered and great in number."

At the same time, U. S. force headquarters in India announced that American bombers flying through rains so thick they were like submarine navigators had pounded the Japanese airfield Myitkya in central Burma with such devastating effect that it had been knocked out as a base for enemy attacks on allied planes ferrying goods to China.

Rent Control Board Hears 19 Complaints

Judge Hector S. Young announced loudly enough to end the arguments.

First Case

The first case was the request of a woman to raise the rent on a North Greenwood street apartment from $17 to $22 a month. The rent on March 1 was $17, but the apartment is empty now and the landlord said she has a renter willing to pay $22. After inquiring about her income from another apartment in the same building and about the size and condition of the apartment the board recommended $20.

In the next case a Girard avenue tenant, who had been paying $27.50 on March 1 complained, his landlord was asking $40 for the house, a modern six-room structure with bath. The landlord declared he had built a double garage, but the renter answered that he only used half of it and besides the garage had been promised when the house was rented to him. After discussing a number of details about the house the board recommended the rent remain at $27.50. The renter asked what he could do about the $40 he had paid for his May rent. He was informed the price ceiling law went into effect June 23 and that rent paid prior to that date was not affected by the law so he couldn't expect a refund.

Elm Street Increase

The next case was filed by a landlord who wanted to increase rent on an Elm street property from $16 to $18 a month. The house has no basement. Although the tenants protested the increase, cracks in the floor and no putty on the windows, the board allowed the increase.

One tenant complained his landlord demanded an increase from $30 to $45 a month in the rent on a South Prospect street house. The landlord said the house had eight rooms and was modern. The tenant answered that water stood in the basement, that light fixtures were old-fashioned, that there were no screens, no garage and that she had to pay for having both porches fixed. She declared she had lived there for three years and that the rent was raised from $25 to $30 last August. The board recommended $30, denying any increase. When the tenant asked about payments that had already been made, above that figure, one of the attorneys informed her she could collect a refund on all rent above $30 paid since June 28.

Descriptions Vary

A landlord asked permission to raise the rent on an Elmwood drive property from $35 to $45 a month. After the board had heard mildly different descriptions of the property from the landlord and tenant and was told the house had rented three years ago for $32.50, it recommended $38. During the discussion the landlord contended it was a seven-room house; the renter called it a five-room house with two neoclosed porches.

The board denied a landlord's request for an increase from $25 to $30 a month for a Garden street property after hearing that the landlord had purchased the place for $1,000 last February.

The renter of a South Grand avenue apartment who complained that her landlord had boosted the rent from $16.50 to $22 failed to appear to argue for her case. The landlords told their story, listed improvements that had been made and the board recommended the increase to $25.

Another Girard avenue property came up with an increase from $30 to $45 a month involved. The landlord was reserving one room and a pantry in the house for her own use and had asked also for use of part of the kitchen. After considerable discussion on the part of both the landlord and renter, the board decided to recommend that the rent remain at $30.

Wins, Although Absent

A landlord that did not appear to push her request for permission to boost her rent from $30 to $35 for a Forest street house was nevertheless granted the board's approval, with one board member pointing out that this rental was in line with those approved for other houses in that part of Marion. The tenants admitted the house was modern and in good condition and said they would be willing to pay that rental if the board fixed it at that figure.

Two more Forest street houses, with one owner, came up next with a request for permission to boost the rent from $30 to $40 a month for six-room modern houses. After satisfying itself that the houses were in fairly good condition the board quickly recommended $35, in line with its other decisions for that neighborhood.

A tenant protest against an increase from $32 to $45 for a Spencer street house, and the landlord answered that the rent regularly had been $35 for the houses and had been reduced to $32 only temporarily for the last previous renters who were new comers and had a tough time getting started financially. After hearing an ex-

County Enters Final Week of Quiet Primary Campaign

Scrutiny of Contests Holds Down Interest; Democratic Congress Race Has Top Spot.

Of the quietest campaigns in the history of Marion county, the election just a week away, has been a minimum, with just a few meetings held to introduce candidates. Interest in the campaign apparently is confined to the contests in the county and the district. Democratic candidates seek the congressional nomination while the Republican candidate is unopposed. The election will be made for offices in the county. However, in two of these contests, for auditor and commissioner, the contest in each party is unopposed. In the third, the contest for state representative, the Democrats have two candidates and the Republicans sponsor an unopposed candidate.

One Write-In Candidate

The Republican candidate for state senator is unopposed and the Democrats have announced J. A. Kilnefelter of New Washington will attempt a write-in election. Such an attempt requires eight per cent of the Democratic vote for nomination. Lack of opposition for several of the nominations, county, district and state, is responsible for the interest lag in the election. In each of the precincts voters will choose one Democratic and one Republican committeeman. In addition, voters will select party members for the state central committee, one man and one woman, and a party member of the county central committee. Voters are again reminded that the deadline for making application for absent voters' ballots is 5:30 p. m. Thursday. Applications must be returned by mail by noon Friday to the board of election at 134 1/2 East Center street.

Charles G. Ritzler, clerk of the Marion county board of elections, said ordinance plant workers may vote if they have registered here, if they have resided here 30 days, if they are residents of the state for a year and, in the case of married men, if their families live here.

Candidate List

The complete list of candidates, Republican and Democratic, is as follows:

Democratic—Frank A. Dye, Walter F. Heer, Clarence H. Knisley and John McSweeney for governor; George D. Nye and R. M. Winegardner for lieutenant governor; John E. Sweeney for secretary of state; Harry V. Armstrong, John Charles Fowler and Robert S. Cox for state treasurer; Joseph C. Allen, Herbert S. Duffy and William J. Hart for attorney general; Stephen M. Young for representative-at-large to congress; William C. Dixon for supreme court judge for term beginning Jan. 1; Willis W. Metcalf for judge of the supreme court for term beginning Jan. 2; C. J. Altmeyer, John A. Slemmon and Brooks Fletcher for representative to congress; Emmitt E. Everett, A. A. Slaybaugh and Ralph Sugru for judge of the court of appeals; J. A. Klein, felter and Andrew T. Durbin for member of the state central committee; Helen M. Erdicott for member of the state central committee, woman; no candidate for state senator; Samuel Altmeyer and Leo J. Cusick for the county's state representative; Charles R. Harrison for county commissioner; A. L. Thomassen for county auditor and no candidate for member of county central committee.

Republican—John W. Bricker for governor; Paul M. Herbert for lieutenant governor; Dale Stump, A. R. Thomas and Dale Stump, Hummel for secretary of state; Don H. Ebricht for state treasurer; Thomas J. Herbert for attorney general; George H. Bender for representative-at-large; Roy H. Williams and Guy B. Findley for supreme court judge for term beginning Jan. 1; Edward C. Turner for supreme court judge for term beginning Jan. 2; Walter S. Jackson and Neal L. Lora for judge of the court of appeals; J. G. MRS. MURDOCK TAKES A CASE

by George Harmon Cox

CHAPTER FORTY-ONE
Missive Papers

RAEBURN glanced at Della Stewart. "I did get the envelope from her," he said, "but I lost it. It was black from Harker's office."

Murdoch stood at him, so did Fenner.

"Someone hit me over the head. When I came to, they were gone. Raeburn looked at John Nason and his eyes were hard and hot. "You wouldn't know about that, would you, Mr. Nason?"

"I don't know," Nason said evenly. "You have many contacts. Men who can do odd jobs for you. Like following me, for instance. I came down Motion street with that envelope in my pocket and was knocked out within a block of the building." He turned slightly, bringing the gun to bear on the lawyer. "By one of your thugs?"

"Nothing of the kind," Nason's voice was loud. "It's absurd, I tell you."

"Perhaps I'll come back to you," Raeburn's gaze moved to Murdoch. "Your wife and I made a bargain. I don't know whether she tricked me or not. I had to take a chance. The loss of the envelope. You didn't tell me I would have to deal with so many people."

"You wouldn't have come."

"Perhaps not but we've wasted enough time, haven't we?"

"I'll keep my promise if you'll keep yours," Joyce said.

"Agreed. But I'll have to insist that you fulfill your part first," Raeburn turned the automatic back and waited.

The Cable

Joyce asked for a cigarette and while Kent gave her one and held her hand, she had time to think. She had taken the chance. If he wanted that envelope, badly enough he might agree. And he had agreed.

"If you'll take me to Ward Allen's apartment," she had said. "I'll see that you get it. But unless you'll tell me the truth about why you came here from Caragua, I'll not."

"I've been more to the argument than that, but she had kept her nerve, insisting that only by taking her to this apartment could he get the envelope. So they had come. She had warned him that Ward and Della would be here, and Ward had opened the door and they found Thorndike and Della on the love seat. They had stayed there too, from Raeburn took the automatic from his pocket, and the explanations were still in progress when the others had arrived.

"All right," she said, and met commissioner Harry V. Mounts for county auditor and Cora B. Rexroth for member of county central committee.

NEW SPECIES OF GARTER SNAKE FOUND IN COUNTY

O. S. U. Student Helps in Discovery.

For the first time in a good many years a new species of garter snake has been discovered in Marion county and a Marion student, Robert Rausch, now at Ohio State university, shares the credit of bringing the specimen to light, according to Edward S. Thomas, curator of natural history at Ohio State Museum.

Described by Thomas as a large and aberrant form of Butler's garter snake, when shown the reptile by Rausch, the latter's theory that it was a plains garter snake was verified by Roger Conant of the Philadelphia Zoo.

The snake, according to Thomas, is a perfectly good plains garter snake, the first known specimen to have been captured in Ohio.

Rausch's hunting grounds for specimens includes swales in the flood-plain of the Little Scioto river which he and Thomas visited recently. Another locality is an ancient ox-bow of the Scioto pasture along Route 739 near Green Camp.

Thomas' guess as to why the snake should be in Ohio, hundreds of miles east of other known localities, is that the species has been in the area for many hundreds of years, that it came into Ohio along with the prairie plants during the great drought some 3,000 years ago, when, foot by foot, year after year the prairies invaded Ohio from the far west. And, he continues, like the lovely white wild indigo and scores of other prairie plants, the plains garter snake exists today as an isolated relic of a past climate.

Sales Tax Receipts Show Small Drop

Sale of prepaid sales tax receipts in Marion county for the four-week period ending July 12 is approximately 1.2 per cent less than for the similar period last year.

During the four-week period sales tax revenue dropped $11,119,557.77 as compared with the comparable period of 1944. Don H. Ebricht, state treasurer, reported. During the collection period last year, receipts from the sale of stamps totaled $13,279,125.65 as compared with $4,159,429.88 this year. Total collections to date last year from the same source amounted to $32,714,668.28 as against this year's $28,800,280.81, the treasurer's report shows.

Approximate percentages for the four-week period for surrounding counties are: Crawford, 1.3 less sales; Delaware, 1.4 less; Hardin, 1.1 less; Morrow, 1.2 less; Union, 1.4 less; Wyandot, 1.3 less.

owned a broadcasting company and a newspaper. When we—those of us whose country it was—became too aggressive there were economic reprisals and threats. Only very recently have we been able to bring some of the real agitators to trial. However...

His glance moved across the room and he shrugged. "The details are unimportant and to understand the rest of it I must tell you something of this estate of ours." He went on to describe the property. "Strategically it is the most important location within several hundred miles. A few well placed guns and planes—the polo field was made to order—and it would become a key point for an invader."

"I did not know my father had left it to Mrs. Clarke," he said. "I did know what this syndicate of Nazi sympathizers wanted it." His smile was twisted as he stopped speaking for a moment.

This is a Suit. It is Ruined

It was hung away in a closet, no care was taken of it and the moths got into it. Its owner is due for an unpleasant surprise the next time he wants to wear the suit.

This is a Balance Sheet. It is Ruined

It once was the balance sheet of a going retail concern. Its owner let the "moths" get into it.

Priorities, rationing, the misfortunes of war cut down his supplies of goods. He stopped advertising, let his customers forget him, neglected to give them services and substitutes for goods he used to sell.

This is the Difference

Newspaper advertising in wartime can be the difference between the success or failure of a retail establishment. New goods, new services made valuable to the public and sold to the public by consistent advertising keeps the "moths" out of the ledger of a going concern.

Pay Cut Leaves One Delaware Co. School Teacherless

DELAWARE, O., Aug. 4.—The teaching staff of the Warrensburg school has resigned following approval of a 10 per cent pay cut, the board of education announced yesterday.

The staff included L. A. McMullin, principal for the last 10 years, Mrs. Mildred Crevelman and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Delaware.

Mrs. Shively will teach in the Delaware school this year and the other teachers are reported to have retired from the teaching field.

Reports that a general 10 per cent cut in salaries of the school personnel had resulted in resignations of two bus drivers and the custodian were denied by members of the Warrensburg board, who said no contracts have yet been offered bus drivers. They said the custodian had announced his intention of resigning several weeks ago.

The board stated emphatically that there are ample funds for operating the school and that the 10 per cent salary slash had been approved to clear up a situation involving one member of the staff.

Robert Decker, clerk of the board, said the staff vacancies would be filled at a regular meeting tonight and that contracts also will be offered bus drivers. A successor may be named to succeed Tom Van Brimmer, custodian.

TRUCK DRIVER CLEARED IN DELAWARE BRIDGE CRASH

Akron Man Held Not Responsible for Accident.

For lack of evidence, a citation against Howard McCune of Akron, issued by the state patrol following an accident last Tuesday in which a bridge at Bellport in Delaware county was wrecked beyond further use, has been dismissed, according to a news report from Delaware.

McCune was cleared of responsibility at a hearing Saturday before Justice James Dunlap of Delaware county when insufficient evidence was presented to support the claim of Homer Bishop of Cleveland that McCune was the cause of the accident.

According to the news report Bishop claimed the trucks side-swiped at the entrance to the bridge, while McCune stated he passed the larger truck approximately 110 feet east of the entrance. The bridge collapsed when the heavily loaded truck tore away supporting stanchions. State highway division engineers estimated the damage at $15,000, and said the bridge would be rebuilt.

Mrs. Strine said she had had the card about 20 years. Mrs. Parker hopes to keep the card equally as long.

'EGGS' OVER TOKYO

EGGS OVER TOAST

Hirohito doesn't like the way the AAF serves "eggs" on Tokyo... but eggs on toast is still a favorite American breakfast. Two extremes, you say... yet both are vital phases of the war effort. Making bombs to drop over Tokyo is one of the big jobs of American industry. Preparing eggs to drop over toast is part of the nutrition program on the home front.

Your gas service is doing duty on both of these important fronts... as a heating agent in the manufacture of munitions... as a cooking fuel in millions of American kitchens. That's why we say gas is doing double duty in Uncle Sam's all out war effort... Double duty with a single purpose... VICTORY!

DOING DOUBLE DUTY

American Association in Tight Race; Seven Teams in Scramble

Seventh Place Team Only Six Games Behind Leaders; Columbus in Tie for Second Position.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—The American association, state of many a close pennant fight, is at again—this time with seven teams combining to produce one of the tightest league races of the 1932 baseball season.

The mass scramble today found seventh place Louisville only six games out of first place, and front-ranking Kansas City out one game ahead of Columbus and Milwaukee, who were tied for second.

Adding to the prospects of a bitter finish was the fact that the three western clubs were dominating the first division and must take to the road this week for extended stays. And among the easterners, Columbus for one, has been almost unbeatable on its own lot since June.

Toledo Surprise
Probably the surprise team of the lot is the Toledo club. Two months ago the Mudhens were in last place. Then began a sudden climb. Right now Toledo is in the midst of another winning string—four in a row—and does not play again until Thursday, when it opens at home against Kansas City.

The current Association scramble came about after Milwaukee and Kansas City first threatened to run away from the rest of the league. But Milwaukee ran into a succession of injuries and then slumped. The same situation

Tennis Tourney Contestants Cut to 47 at Culver

By The Associated Press
CULVER, Ind., Aug. 4.—With the starting field of 108 already reduced to 47, all seeded players still were in the running today as play moved ahead in the national junior and boys tennis tournaments at Culver Military academy.

In the junior division only part of the second round matches were completed. In the opening round Hollywood's Bob Falkenberg, seeded third, defeated Bill Friel of Portsmouth, O., 6-3, 6-1.

All seeded players in the boys group came through first and second round matches. Sam Handel, Philadelphia, seeded first, had to go three sets before defeating Howard Calloway, Hamilton, O., 7-5, 2-6, 6-1.

Other results involving Ohio entrants:
(Boys singles, second round): Bob Ziervogel, St. Louis, defeated David Kwenzli, Springfield, O., 8-2, 4-6, 6-2.

Marion Hawks to Play Fremont Here Wednesday

The Marion Hawks softball team will meet the Fremont club here Wednesday night for the fifth time. The Fremont team, now holding second place in the Ohio State league, has defeated the Hawks in every game.

The starting pitcher for the Marion club will be Johnny Edgington, while Doc White probably will begin the game for the Fremont team. The Hawks have four more games scheduled with the Fremont team after Wednesday's contest. Tomorrow's game is scheduled to get under way at 7 p. m. at Lincoln park.

Dodger-Giant Game Ended by Dimout Leaves 57,300 Spectators in Confusion

Crowd Boos But Ump Calls Game in Last Half of 9th; Dodgers Win, 7 to 4.

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Writer
The dimout on the east coast blacked out the ninth inning of a bitter battle between the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants last night, leaving 57,300 spectators in confusion, and made continuance of the two-night form of baseball in New York a matter of doubt.

About all the fans were sure of was that the National league champions had won the ball game 7-4 with Dixie Walker belting a three-run homer in the third inning and Dolph Camilli hitting the jackpot in the seventh inning with a clout against the rightfield roof while the bases were loaded.

The Giants also scored four runs. Trailing by three runs they came to bat in the last half of the ninth and Bill Werber singled on the first pitch, then Mel Ott walked. The crowd was in an uproar, sensing that Wyatt, who had hit a homer earlier, was next at bat, to be followed by Willard Marshall and Buster Maynard, a couple of sluggers.

However, Umpire George Mageekuth at this point signalled the game was over because of the dimout rules.

The Brooklyn team remained in the field for several minutes while the big crowd that had turned out for the benefit of the army emergency relief fund booed long and loud.

President Horace Stoneham of the Giants said there would never by another two-night game in his ball park after tonight.

The Giant-Dodger contest was the only major league game yesterday.

HARDIN CO. BOARD SETS DATES FOR FAIR

Special to The Star
KENTON, O., Aug. 4.—Directors of the Hardin County Agricultural Society today made public a decision to hold the Hardin County Fair here on Sept. 30, October 1 and 2.

The group, in reaching a decision, said that county agricultural fairs should be considered as morale builders for the rural population and announced that the local program would be devoted to furthering the war effort.

Grounds are being beautified, county commissioners will improve the building set-up, there will be two days of harness racing and one of specialty racing. Membership tickets were placed on sale this week, directors reported. Exhibit premium lists calling for payment of more than $1,000 in prizes are being printed.

INDIANS, BROWNS SET FOR 3 GAMES

"Surprise Teams" of American League Ready To Clash.

By The Associated Press
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 4.—The surprise teams of the American league—Cleveland Indians and St. Louis Browns—were today set for an important inter-league series under the stars tonight.

The series probably will tell whether the "true" can hold its half-game lead over the Indians place Boston and whether the Browns' berth in the first division is the real thing, or just a one-night stand.

Luke Sewell's charges have mixed victory over good teams with defeats at the hands of weak ones. They have even trounced the Yankees handily—and vice versa.

It's anybody's guess how they will do against the rallying Redskins, because tonight's contest will be the first time the two teams have met since Memorial Day.

Columbus whipped Louisville 2 to 1 yesterday. Springfield beat Zanesville 8 to 3. Defiance beat Youngstown 12 to 7. Cincinnati buried Elyria 12 to 1, and Cleveland blanked Lima 5 to 0.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—A lot of fight-pace folks around New York, including several city and state officials, are trying to get up a three-day fistic carnival there Sept. 5-7 to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the great event when champions were settled for the first time by fighters wearing big padded mittens.

If you can find the record for 1922, you'll see that Jack McAuliffe knocked out Billy Meyer in 13 rounds for the lightweight title on Sept. 5 the next day George Dixon knocked Jack Skelly in eight heats to take the featherweight crown and it was on Sept. 7 that Jim Corbett knocked out John L. Sullivan to inaugurate a new heavyweight reign.

No Words Wanted—Southwestern Tech. of Weatherford, Okla., quit football this week and here's the reason given by its to-the-point president, G. S. Sanders, who played football himself before the first World war: "We have a parachute that will fit any pair of shoulders; they can learn how to kick hell out of Japs instead of footballs; we can spend that $5,000 for training planes instead of training pants." (Tech has contracted with Uncle Sam to produce 30 licensed pilots and 650 licensed airplane mechanics this year.)

One-Minute Sports Page—If your tires won't take you to the games, don't worry about a possible shortage of football on the air this fall; the networks already are lining up announcers for the big games.

Today's Guest Star—Art Edson, Oklahoma Times' "Eastern writers just can't believe that Van Lingle Mungo, who scored to fame with the Brooklyn Dodgers, should not be telling with the once hated, hateful Giants. A major league ball player, however, never seems to have any trouble putting his loyalty where his money is."

The Zanesville Cubs collected 13 hits and triumphed 6 to 3 to take a 2 to 1 lead in the series.

Is Only Major League Umpire To Appear Regularly in Movies.

Wide World Features

John E. Reardon, New Englander, is going to give up in Southern California as one of the best paid umpires and all-around players ever to step on a major league ball field.

Like most of his colleagues, Reardon played only as a boy. He tackled umpiring at the age of 16 and in the end of eyes he has, the first attempt, labelled him for as a chosen man for the job.

His debut was at Boyle Heights in Los Angeles. Before joining the National league staff in 1926, he operated in the service league, the minor league, the copper league, the Arizona league, Western Canada league and Pacific Coast league.

Like the one and only "Old Arbiter" Bill Klem, Beans was a protégé of Hank O'Day, great National league umpire whose career straddled the two centuries in which baseball has been played. He is recommended Beans for a big league job.

John's nickname dates from his brief playing career. He was trying out for the ball club representing the Southern Pacific railway team camped in Los Angeles. The team captain asked him where he was from.

"Taunton, Mass," rejoined Reardon.

"I get it, a bean-eater," said the captain. That day the new player came to bat with the bases full.

"Come on, Beans," yelled the captain. "Let's see you knock it a mile."

Young Reardon promptly knocked a ball over the left-field fence and after that, the boys all called him "Beans."

Beans is married and has one child. He's the only major league umpire who has also had a career in the movies. Most of his appearances in pictures have been in minor roles but in the making of several summer-films in which baseball has played a part, Beans worked in winter at the rate of $50 per diem as "technical adviser."

The last time the Russian Kalmikoff was here he lost his match in a ten-round affair against Billins and Steele.
